BOOZE OR MEDICINE?

Which will you have? If a woman suffering from one of the delicate ailments peculiar to your sex it will be well for you to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy advertised for such maladies which is absolutely free from intoxicating liquors and all other harmful agents. The good you feel from its use is not the delusive exhileration from a tippling beverage, from which the system reacts into a worse condition than before. It may be a little slower in manifesting its bracing and invigorating action, but its benefits are none the less positive and, best of all, they are lasting. It's an honest medicine—not a beverage.

"I have been taking your medicine for the last three weeks and can say I am gaining strength," writes Mrs. Seneth Kinny, of 608 East Madison Street, Mount Pleasant, Iowa. "I have been having very poor health all winter. I doctored with our family doctor but was relieved only while taking the medicine. I took Dr. Pierce's medicine several years ago. I knew it was good for any one suffering with female trouble. Have taken only one bottle and am gaining strength very fast. I could not eat nor sleep when I began taking the 'Favorite Prescription.' Heart troubled me and I had cold and numb spells till my heart would almost stop beating. Have had one child since first taking your medicine. If I continue with your treatment am positive I will be cured."

Every suffering woman in this land should write to Dr. Pierce and learn how certainly he can help her to health and strength. It costs nothing to write and receive entirely free the advice of one of the most experienced physicians in this country. His great thousand-page book the Common Sense Medical Adviser, in stiff paper covers, will be sent free for 21 one-cent stamps the bare cost of mailing; or, send 31 stamps for cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets

These ORIGINAL Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago, have been much imitated but never equaled. They're made of purely vegetable, concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American roots and plants. They speedily relieve and cure foul, torpid and deranged Stomachs, Livers and Bowels and their attendant distressful ailments. One or two a laxative, three or four a cathartic.

Don't allow the dealer to insult your intelligence by offering his own remedy to you instead of this well-known preparation of Dr. Pierce.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weaken, and become diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Kodol cures indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

MR. BRYAN AS WITNESS.

William J. Bryan appeared in the Probate Court at New Haven, Conn., yesterday, at a hearing on the accounts of the estate of the late Philo S. Bennett, of which Mr. Bryan is administrator. During the examination Mr. Bryan submitted to a rapid fire of questions from Judge Henry Stodard, counsel for Mrs. Grace I. Bennett, the widow, and at times considerable impatience was manifested by both the questioner and the witness.

Attorney White was first put on the stand as counsel for the administrator to explain the accounts, but Mr. Bryan interrupted so frequently that Judge Stoddard suggested that Mr. Bryan wait until he was on the stand before he attempted to explain matters. Mr. Bryan then said:

"Your honor, I object to the insinuations thrown out by Judge Stoddard. For 18 months I have heard these insinuations and I am tired of it. I am willing to testify. I want to testify."

Judge Stoddard remarked that if Mr. Bryan would go on the stand later he would ask him questions. The examination of Mr. White then proceeded. This ended, Mr. Bryan took the stand. He said to the best of his knowledge the amount presented in court was the exact amount of the money received from the estate. He only knew of the value of the co-partnership from the appraiser's report and statements made to him by Mr. Sloan.

"Do you know the face value of the bills, notes and accounts receivable due to Bennett, Sloan & Co., at the time the business was taken over by the new corporation?" asked Judge Stoddard.

"I only know from the statement filed that it was $227,855.57," Mr. Bryan replied.

"In other words, you know it only from statements made by Mr. Sloan?"

"Yes, that's all. I think no examination was made except by the appraisers."

When asked about the amount collected on notes outstanding, Mr. Bryan stated that the loss on accounts was only $2,500.

It appeared that on July 1, 1904, Mr. Sloan turned over to Mr. Bryan as executor $172,844, but Mr. Bryan could not say for how long a time this sum had been accumulating. His statement that he had allowed the new corporation 90 days' time in which to sell merchandise of the estate was subjected to some criticism by Judge Stoddard, who asked if had the 90 days' time not been given would it not have been possible to have paid the legacies earlier.

"I paid the legacies as fast as my attorneys thought it safe to pay them," replied Mr. Bryan.

KILLED BY A BOMB.

A dispatch from Baku, Caucasis, says that the governor of Baku, Prince Nakachidze, was assassinated at 3 p. m. yesterday by a bomb which was thrown at his carriage. A lieutenant who was accompanying the governor and a bystander were also killed by the explosion, and the coachman is believed to have been fatally injured.

Though no details of the assassination of Prince Nakachidze, governor of Baku, Caucasia, at Baku, Wednesday, have been received at St. Petersburg, the expression there is that the outrage was the work of the Armenian revolutionary committee, in revenge for the attitude taken by the prince during the racial war between Armenians and Tartars in February last, and is not attributable to Russian terrorists, even though the latter are at present extremely active in many parts of the empire

The Armenians laid the responsibility for the death of those slain in February at the door of Prince Nakachidz, and only Tuesday suit was begun against the prince before the Senate tribunal at St. Petersburg, in behalf of the children of Lalaieff, a Baku millionaire, whose house was stormed and burned, and himself, his wife, and parents killed during the riots. In the suit damages to the amount of $12,500 were claimed, it being maintained that the governor, instead of performing his duty by stopping the massacre, actually incited the Tartars to attack the Armenians.

Prince Nakachidze was popular among the Russian element in the Caucasus. He was a man of high spirits, and, in spite of the hatred of the powerful Armenian revolutionary committee, he disdained military protection, and appeared on the streets unattended. He refused to heed the warnings and entreaties of his friends.

The chief of police of the Snylten district, Poland, has been shot and seriously wounded by a band of roughs. Ten arrests have been made in connection with the shooting.

Four persons were killed and thirty wounded in a fight at Warsaw last night between Jewish workmen and the Jewish keepers of disorderly houses. Both sides used knives. The dead and wounded were terribly mutilated. The quarrel is said to have originated at a wedding which took place yesterday.

Man's Reasonableness

is often as great as women's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five [5] physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, price 50c.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There Is a Difference.

The difference between Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and all other Cough Syrup is that it moves the bowels, thus expelling a cold from the system. This relaxes the nerve-tissues and by its healing effect on the throat and lungs the cough is relieved—cured entirely. Kennedy's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar and contains no opiates. Good alike for young or old. Tastes good. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick street.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 25, 1905.

THE ORATION delivered yesterday evening by Major Holmes Conrad in front of the Confederate Monument, at Prince and Washington streets, was one of the most thrilling and interesting that has been heard in this city for many years. It abounded in humor, pathos and rock-ribbed facts, and throughout its delivery was listened to attentively by the many present. The salient points of his address will be found elsewhere in the Gazette. The major had had no time in which to prepare an oration and his address was impromptu, but it was soon realized that the speaker was equal to any occasion. His words flowed spontaneously, and the address abounded in thought, history and fact, while his tribute to the Confederate dead was pathetic, his exposition of the principles for which they fought incontrovertible, and his arraignments of the republican party just. The major uttered many truths which will long be remembered. His reference to the fact that southern associations and social surrounding had undergone no change as the result of the war between the States was suggestive. In political circles, however, things were not as formerly. "What would have been thought of James M. Mason or R. M. T. Hunter had they been seen going about the State begging people to vote for them?" was a significant query of Major Conrad. Truly, times have changed and people have changed with them.

THERE IS a growing complaint throughout the city of the noisy and bad behavior of boys and even those of older growth, and of the license given such conduct by the authorities, or, more strictly speaking, by those who are paid to preserve order and the peace and dignity of the city. Property in neighborhoods where noisy crowds congregate is depreciated in value and the city consequently loses its revenues therefrom by reason of lessened taxes, while people seeking homes shun cities where laws are violated and where the disorderly classes are allowed to do as they please. There is no excuse for such a state of affairs in Alexandria for the laws governing such matters are so plain that those who run may read them. A few arrests for the violation of these laws and the strict enforcement of the penalty therefor would have a most salutary effect and such a procedure is at least worth a trial. That there is sufficient law on the statute books to meet all such cases is shown by the following taken from the city code:

It shall be the duty of the policemen to bring before the mayor or some justice of the peace within the city of Alexandria, all riotous, noisy and disorderly boys, or other persons, if detected in so conducting themselves in the streets, lanes or alleys of the city, or in or about churches, or any public places, as to annoy the citizens and disturb the quiet and good order of the community; and upon proof being had before the mayor or justice of the peace of any boy, or other person having been guilty of cursing, or swearing, or using noisy, boisterous, insulting or obscene language, of breaking the peace, or any other disorderly conduct; such offender or offenders shall be fined not less than fifty cents nor more than five dollars for each offense, one-half for the use of the informer.

THE EYES of the civilized world are again directed toward the far East where the Russian and Japanese fleets are drawing nearer each other daily. To-day's dispatches from London say reports are in circulation at all capitals to the effect that the two fleets have met. One report is that the Japanese have been worsted; another is that Togo has used his torpodo-boat destroyers on the Russian ships, but that the result is unknown. It is believed, however, that within the next few hours news will be received of a conflict between the vessels of the two countries. So far there has been no real naval engagement between vessels of equal size. Should the two admirals meet in the open sea the carnage would be terrible and probably result in the demolition of both fleets or putting them out of commission for some time. In the meantime there is every reason to believe that news of another sanguinary land battle will soon be received. There have already been preliminary fights in which the Japanese are said to have emerged victorious.

THE SITUATION in Chicago continues acute. More strikes are reported and business is hampered considerably. The strike leaders say they are endeavoring to prevent acts of violence, while the authorities are marshaling all the policemen available in order to forestall those who would commit overt acts. It is the firm determination of the officials to call for State troops should the police force prove unable to preserve the peace.

Captured by Arabian Rebels.

London, May 25.—A dispatch to the Central News from Constantinople says that it is rumored there that Arabian rebels in Yemen province have captured Hodeidas, an important town on the Red Sea.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., May 25.

The appointment was announced today of Morgan Treat to be U. S. Marshall for the eastern district of Virginia.

U. S. Minister Russell, it is understood, left Bogota only yesterday in response to the instructions of the President to come to Washington to give testimony in the Bowen-Loomis controversy. It will therefore probably be near the end of June before he can arrive here.

It is officially denied at the Postoffice Department that Estes G. Rathbone, former director of posts in Cuba, is in any way connected with the postal service at this time, either directly or indirectly. This denial is called forth by a press dispatch from Denver to the effect that Mr. Rathbone had been inspecting the postoffices in that city and Omaha. It is stated that Mr. Rathbone has a position with a trust company at Tonopah, Nevada, and that his presence in Denver and Omaha in connection with the business of that concern may have led to the erroneous report that he was there on business for the Postoffice Department.

Marcus Braun, the United States immigration inspector, who got into trouble with the Hungarian government officials, has been transferred to another field and the Hungarian police officer who interferred with his mail has been dismissed from the service and punished. This ends the incident which has been the subject of diplomatic negotiations between this government and that of Austria-Hungary for several weeks.

The International Waterways Commission, consisting of three representatives of the Dominion of Canada and the same number from the United States, met for the first time this morning. Immediately after assembling in the rooms of Gen. O. H. Ernst, the chairman of the American delegation, the commission in a body called upon acting Secretary of State Loomis in order that the foreign members might be formally presented. An informal conference was later held with Gen. Ernst presiding. Beyond a general interchange of views it is not expected that anything will be accomplished by the commission until after the return of Secretary Taft.

Stormy scenes marked the session today of the Southern Industrial Parliament. The resolutions committee after a four hours session last night drafted a set of resolutions which it was intended should be offered the parliament for adoption this morning. Secretary Murphy caused the first wrangle by stating that after conference with a number of southern representatives in Congress and several prominent men he believed it was inadvisable for this parliament to go on record in reference to many subjects of current importance, and suggested that such action be delayed for a year. Delegates quarreled in their efforts to dispute about Dr. Murphy's position. The time having arrived at which the delegates should leave to call upon President Roosevelt a motion to adjourn was adopted with the parliament in much disorder. The resolutions will be considered later.

In a significant speech this afternoon at the opening session of the annual convention of 2nd and 3rd class postmaster General Cortelyou expressed the administrations disapproval of organizations of postal employes when their purpose is other than for improvements in the service, or except when they are fraternal or beneficial in character. "With any other purpose in view," he said they are detrimental to the service, to their members and to the public.

At today's session of the International Police Association the old officers were re-elected, with Major Richard Sylvester, of Washington, as president. Hot Springs, Arkansas, was selected over Richmond, Virginia, as the next place of meeting.

A statement compiled by the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General shows that New York heads the list of states in the number of free delivery post offices with 100, which is more than there were in the whole United States thirty years ago. Pennsylvania comes next with 94 offices; then Ohio with 73.

Spencer Trask, the New York banker, testified this morning in the Crawford postoffice trial to having been introduced to the defendant by the Countess di Brazza and to the subsequent financing of the Postal Lock and Device Company. He said Crawford's reputation at that time was excellent and he was very well thought of in business circles. Thomas McGregor, formerly chief of the supply division, now serving a two year sentence in the Baltimore penitentiary, gave testimony relative to Machen's influence in the purchase of various devices and materials.

Mrs. Roosevelt and her children will go to Oyster Bay for the summer about the 10th of June.

Mr. Swanson Sanguine.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond News Leader writes:

Representative Swanson spent a few hours in Washington Monday on his way from one point to another in Virginia, where he is losing no time in conducting his campaign for the governorship. To the few friends who talked with him while he was here he appeared exceedingly sanguine as to his prospects and apparently had no forebodings as to unsatisfactory results. Friends and admirers of Mr. Swanson tell him that he will carry every district in the State unless it is the Eighth, where it is conceded that Mr. Willard may poll a majority of votes.

Mr. Swanson's confidence in the outcome has been increased as a result of reports received by him from friends in different parts of the State and a result of the warm receptions he has received wherever he has appeared.

The Presbyterian Federal Assembly at Winona Lake, Ind, yesterday by an almost unanimous vote decided to investigate the project of Justice Harlan for a Presbyterian Cathedral Church, at Washington, D. C,

The Southern Presbyterian Church, in session at Forth Worth, Texas, is still discussing union with the Northern Church, but the sentiment of the General Assembly seems to be against anything beyond a form of federation that is limited to co-operation in certain work.

The Supreme Council, Royal Arcanum, at Atlantic City, N. J., yesterday, voted to spend $18,000 to extend the order in States where no grand council exists. Final action on the plea of the National Sanitarium for assistance to build a home for consumptives resulted in the official commendation for the project. Members were forbidden making their benefits payable to estates.

Secretary Taft.

In his report before the Ohio State republican convention at Columbus yesterday Secretary Taft discussed the railway rate question, saying the bill passed by the House seemed a moderate measure, calculated to give the added power to the commission necessary to effectiveness in remedying specific wrongs in rates without creating an all powerful tribunal which shall in advance take away from railways the power of rate making and of elastically responding to varying conditions. It will not thus paralyze individual effort in meeting the changing demands of trade. Concerning the treasury deficit, Mr. Taft said that it was likely to continue, it being impossible to cut down the appropriations. There were two alternatives, either revision of the tariff or the imposition of internal taxation. As to freight affairs, Mr. Taft defended the San Domingo treaty, saying it put the island into the hands of the United States as a receiver, and said we should accept the obligations imposed by the Monroe doctrine.

"The President," he said, "insists that if the United States is to become responsible to Europe for the good conduct of the governments of Central and South America, then it must be heard by those governments when it demands that they put their houses in order and so avoid the just complaints of European powers." He referred to the policy of forbearance shown toward Venezuela as showing that although the President carries a "big stick," he does in fact speak softly. Mr. Taft urged a reduction in the Philippine tariff rates and concluded with reference to several of the more important State issues.

Board of Education.

In its investigations in Richmond yesterday the State Boord of Education took some interesting testimony in connection with charges made by J. D. Eggleston, jr., to the effect that charge made for the Virginia teachers' register is exorbitant, and that an official of the department of education is interested in the publication of the book.

The testimony showed that Julian P. Thomas, head of the Richmond High School, prints the register, and that the books of the J. L. Hill Printing Company, which gets out the register, indicate that those interested in it are J. P. Thomas and John A. McGilvrey, assistant secretary of the Board of Education. McGilvrey admitted that he had aided in the preparation of the book, but said he had no pecuniary interest in it. In this statement he was corroborated by Thomas, and the printing company had no evidence to gainsay this testimony.

The board went into executive session to consider the matter. The evidence showed that the Virginia register has been sold for years for 75 cents a copy, though only costing 25 cents to print, while North Carolina teachers only pay 15 cents for the same book, and it costs those in South Carolina three and one-half to four cents. Eggleston and McGilvrey are both candidates for the office of superintendent of public instruction.

Among the superintendents of schools elected yesterday was Mr. J. M. Beckham, of Culpeper.

Five persons was selected to act as a State board of examiners to have supervision over schools in the five grand divisions at a salary of $1,200 each, with $300 for expenses. Their names will be made known later.

Railroad Accident.

A dispatch from Cumberland, Md., says: Coming down the steep Ursina grade at a runaway speed of sixty miles an hour, yesterday afternoon, a Baltimore and Ohio freight train, consisting of fifty-nine loaded cars, drawn by two engines, crashed into a local shifter and six freight cars at Confluence, smashing both engines and killing M. R. Waddle, fireman, of New Haven. J. R. McManus, of Connellsville, was on the head engine, and Richard Cunningham was on the second engine. Both men saved their lives by jumping, although they were badly cut and bruised. The wreck occurred within fifty yards of the station. Three thracks were torn up and debris was strewn over 200 yards. Had the wreck occurred five minutes later, the fast New York and Chicago express, No. 5, might have crashed into it. As it was, the train was stopped on the opposite side of the blockade. Fireman Waddle was caught between the wreckage and slowly scalded to death by the escaping steam. He was married only six months ago. Many of the cars were demolished.

Kills Husband of Her Cousin.

J. M. Specht, a farmer and miller, was shot and killed yesterday near McArthur, Ohio, by Mrs. Emma Flynn, formerly of Columbus. Mrs. Flynn was arrested yesterday on a charge of murder. She claims that late Tuesday night she noticed what she supposed to be a tramp looking into her window and that securing a revolver, she fired through the glass and barricaded herself in the house. Specht's body was found by his family yesterday morning on the lawn, in front of the Flynn home. Mrs. Specht and Mrs. Flynn are cousins and the families have been on the best of terms.

Judge L. L. Lewis, district attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia, who was in Washington yesterday, is reported to have said: "I am not a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination of the republican State convention. I do not want the nomination. Of course, I have heard all the talk about my being a candidate and my being made the nominee whether I want the honor or not, but I shall not seek it, and, honestly, I should regret it if the convention should offer it to me."

Rathbone Again in Service.

Estes G. Rathbone, former Fourth Assistant Postmaster General of the United States and director general of posts of the Island of Cuba, under American occupation, sentenced to imprisonment for a term ranging from three to eleven years, and to pay a fine of $102,947 for alleged Cuban postal frauds, is again in the employ of the United States Postoffice Department. This is the statement made by members of the inspection department who are stationed in Denver. More than that, they say that Rathbone's trip there this week was on business connected with the postoffice, and that he thoroughly examined the books of every department of the Denver office before leaving for the east.

Discharged from the service in disgrace when he was convicted on March 30, 1902, Gen. Rathbone would now be serving his sentence in a Havana prison had not an amnesty treaty between the two countries been signed when Cuba was born, on May 20, 1903. When the appointment was made is not known. It was never officially announced from Washington, and members of the inspection service in Denver are reluctant to discuss it, although they admitted that he was employed by the department.

The mystery of the appointment even surrounds the nature of the work Gen. Rathbone is supposed to do. Beyond the fact that he is a member of the inspection department and that he has a general inspector's authority, even the local postoffice officials are unable to explain his connection with the service.

Letter to T. A. Groves.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: A gallon saved is $4 or $5 earned. Devoe saves 2 or 3 gallons in 10. How much is it worth a gallon?

A gallon saved saves the painting too; and both together cost $4 or $5—$4 where labor is cheap; $5 where labor is dear.

Our agents in Bridgeport, Conn., Hubbell & Wade Co., tell us: "There are a great many workingmen's houses here. They used to paint lead-and-oil and take ten gallons. Devoe lead-and-zinc, and have had, in every instance, two gallons returned." The proportion is often higher than that; we have known it five in ten; but that is exceptional.

This is the explanation: Devoe is ground by machinery, and is ground fine; lead-and-oil is mixed by hand, and isn't ground at all.

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & CO

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A., writes. "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Today's Telegraphic News

Rumors of Naval Battle.

London, May 25.—The correspondent of the Central News at St. Petersburg wires that persistent rumors are head in naval circles to the effect that a naval battle has commenced off the island of Formosa.

London, May 25.—The impression prevails here in naval circles that the Japanese and Russian fleets have met in battle and news is being eagerly awaited as to the outcome of the supposed conflict. Rumors of all kinds are afloat, and while none of them can be traced to any responsible source, they are, nevertheless, believed to a certain extent. In all the rumors the waters in the neighborhood of Formosa are mentioned as the scene of the fighting, either in Basshi channel directly south of the island, or in the Pacific to the east of Formosa. That the Russian fleet was in the neighborhood of Formosa, or the islands to the south, on Sunday or Monday, is now generally believed, as the reports made by vessels which sighted the warships cannot be doubted. St. Petersburg also has received the report of a naval battle, which adds strength to the rumors afloat here.

The report from the far East indicate that Admiral Rojestvensky probably divided his fleet in passing from the China Sea into the Pacific ocean. The Norwegian steamer Oscar II., which arrived at Nagasaki this morning, reported being stopped in Batan straits to the south of Formosa, on May 19, by a Russian fleet of fourteen converted cruisers and sixteen destroyers.

A dispatch from Manila, received this morning, says that a fleet of over fifty warships was sighted to the eastward of the Batan islands, on May 20. The vessels are supposed to have been Russians as it is known that Admiral Togo has not that large a fleet at his command. The vessels were heading toward the northeast, out into the open Pacific ocean. To get to the eastward of the Batan islands, in the position described in the dispatch, it would have been necessary for the vessels to pass through Balingtang channel, or one of the southern channels between the islands of the Philippine group.

Manila also had the report last night that a battle had been fought to the south of Formosa, in which the Japanese had been defeated. This is regarded here as important in view of the general belief that the fleets have met.

Situation in Chicago Acute.

Chicago, May 25.—Will troops come into Chicago today? This is the question that citizens of the city are asking each other this morning. Mayor Dunne is determined to handle the strike situation with the force at his immediate command, and has called for a thousand volunteer policemen to do guard duty in the extended territory affected by the quitting of the lumber wagon drivers. The mayor and the sheriff say if violence does not get beyond their control today no troops will be needed. The labor leaders say they will permit no violence.

Two hundred teamsters employed by the Hardwood Lumber Association and forty more in the service of the Shavings and Sawdust Company, are scheduled to go out today, when ordered to make deliveries to strike bound firms. President Edward Hines, of the United Association of Wood Industries, says the situation is acute this morning, and he expects building operations to be seriously injured if not entirely suspended in a short time.

"I have the greatest contempt for this master in chancery trial. If they imprison me for contempt, all right, but contempt is something I really have for the court." Such was the defiance hurled at Master in Chancery Sherman by President C. H. Shea of the teamsters. He was addressing a mass meeting of the strikers which packed Bricklayers' Hall, and his radical statements stirred the vast crowd to tumultuous applause.

Shea and his codefendants, in the proceedings before Master Shermanswho refused to answer questions on the grounds that they might incriminate themselves, will appear before Judge Kohlsaat today on citations for contempt.

The committee of fifteen of the Chicago Federation of Labor will go before States Attorney Healy today, and demand the indictment of the agents of the express companies for establishing a blacklist. Charges that Chicago public school teachers have expressed open sympathy with the striking teamsters, with disturbing effects on the pupils under their care, were made last night at the meeting of the Board of Education. There was biting criticism of the Chicago federation, and a demand was made for an investigation of that organization.

Russian Movement Failed.

London, May 25.—The Exchange Telegraph Co. has received a dispatch from its correspondent at St. Petersburg, which says that reliable advices from the front state that the offensive movement made by General Rennekampff, who was sent on a reconnaissance around the left flank of the Field Marshal Oyama's army, failed. The Russian force returned badly beaten after a conflict with the Japanese in which several hundred Russians were lost. A strict censorship is being exercised by the Russians at the front, and it is impossible to get through any information regarding the operations of the armies. This has usually been the case just previous to a battle and the experts argue from this that a renewal of hostilities on a large scale can be expected shortly. General Linievitch apparently is taking no chances on allowing his plans to become known to the enemy through the correspondents by establishing a rigid censorship.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucuous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

The Embroglios in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 25.—The injunction proceedings which yesterday resulted in the ousting from office of Directors Sheldon Potter and A. Lincoln Acker, Mayor Weaver's new appointees, were answered in vigorous fashion by the Mayor, this morning.

The previously dismissed directors, Smyth and Costello, in pursuance of their announced intention to attempt the resumption of their interrupted duties, were early at the department offices and began the transaction of work as if naught had happened to interrupt them. Their contention was that under the city charter, otherwise known as the Bullitt bill, they continued to hold office until their successors had been confirmed by select council. They had hardly got comfortably settled in their chairs when they were served with letters written by the Mayor, warning them that he considered them as trespassers, that they would be treated as such, and that unless they at once vacated the offices they would be forcibly ejected.

Smyth and Costello prepared to vacate, but before they could don their coats and hats and place their desks in shape, ex Judge James Gay Gordon, acting as the counsel and personal representative of Mayor Weaver, and accompanied by Captain of Detectives Donaghy and Detectives Bond and Duey, appeared at the offices and forcibly ejected both Smyth and Costello from their respective offices.

Detective Bond was then placed in charge of the office of the Director of Public Works, with orders to admit no one who was not connected with the department or who did not have a personal permit from the Mayor.

Similar instructions were given to Dectective Duey, who was installed as guardian of the offices of the Director of Public Safety.

It is rumored that Dr. Edward Martin, Director of Health and Charities, has grown disgusted with the controversy now raging, and will voluntarily tender his resignation, casting his fortunes with the republican leaders, and against Mayor Weaver, whose personal friend he has been for years, and whose personal appointee he is.

At a conference of the republican leaders early this afternoon, it was determined to institute impeachment proceedings against Mayor Weaver, tomorrow morning. It is understood that the proceedings will be based on certain letters which the Mayor is alleged to have written in connection with the trial of Samuel Salter, for ballot box frauds. These letters have been in the possession of a prominent lawyer but have now been turned over to the republican leaders to use as ammunition against the Mayor in the present big fight.

Deed of a Madman.

San Francisco, May 25.—As they lay in their beds early yesterday morning, the wife and five children of William Stephens were shot by the husband and father, who had awakened from a restless sleep a raving maniac. Mrs. Stephens and three of the children were killed instantly, bullets having entered their brains. The madman, whose home was in Ross Valley, after completing his bloody work within, rushed from the house and pursued a milkman. The latter escaping, Stephens shot himself to death. One of the two children who are living describes the crime as having happened within a very few moments. Stephens shot one bullet after another as fast as he could move the weapon and pull the trigger. His aim was diabolically true. When neighbors entered the house they found the mother and five children in their beds, each with a bullet wound in the head. The surviving children are dying.

Rioting in Warsaw.

Warsaw, May 25.—The fighting which has been in progress in the Jewish quarter since yesterday was renewed this morning and there has been more bloodshed. Jewish socialists took the lead in the outbreaks today, attacking the thieves, rough characters and others who infest the quarters. Knives and revolvers were used freely by both sides and it is estimated that at least sixty persons have been killed or wounded. All the victims are Jews. The fighting yesterday lasted until midnight and spread throughout the entire Jewish quarter. Street fights have occurred frequently. Twenty were reported as injured, several of them being students, who were taken to hospitals. There has been bitter feeling for some time between the better classes of Jews and the rowdy element. The fighting began when an effort was made to drive the latter out of the quarter.

A Disappointed Crowd.

New York, May 25.—The much-promised sensational trial of the breach of promise suit brought by Mrs. Katherine Poillon against W. Gould Brokaw for $250,000, came to a sudden interruption this morning, when counsel for the millionaire clubman and yachtsman made a motion before Justice Dowling, to have the trial set over to the June calendar call. Counsel for Mr. Brokaw said that efforts were making looking to an adjustment of differences. Lawyers for Mrs. Poillon concurred in the motion, and the trial was set over. The sudden termination of the present trial, which had barely begun, was a general surprise to the large crowd present in court.

Vessels for Russian Navy.

Marseilles, May 25.—M. Benz, engineer in chief of the Russian navy, is here today inspecting eighteen torpedo boats and destroyers and two battleships which are being built for the Russian government at Seine shipyards. In an interview, with the correspondent of the Publishers Press, M. Benz said: "I am going to the United States where I will purchase ten large steamers to be converted into cruisers. The sale has already been arranged for." M. Benz added that he hoped to buy three battleships and eight cruisers in the United States. He will be presented to President Roosevelt.

The Brooklyn Handicap.

New York, May 25.—The Brooklyn Handicap, the first and most popular in the series of handicaps at one mile and a quarter for the older horses, will have its nineteenth renewal at Gravesend this afternoon. The names of a dozen horses have been sent out as the list of starters. Unless James R. Keene's Delhi and August Belmont's Lord of the Vale be excepted, none of the condidates can be classified as really high-class horses. Delhi will probably be the favorite with Lord of the Vale, second and Walter Jennings' stable Dainty and Proper close up as third choices.

State Board Adjourns.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, May 25.—The State Board of Education adjourned today indefinitely after electing superintendents everywhere except Newport News. Dr. T. W. Dew was chosen in Spottsylvania after a hot contest, the Smith people swearing vengeance.

Governor Montague has gone to Lynchburg where he speaks tonight.

Attacks United States.

St. Petersburg, May 25.—The Novoe Vremya today contains a strong editorial article attacking America. The friendship of the United States for Japan in the present war between Japan and Russia is false, the paper declares. It advises the government, after the war is over, to improve and strengthen its relations with the yellow race for the purpose of opposing American influence in the far East.

Troubles in Spain.

Madrid, May 25.—Troubles are still reported in Bilbao. Women anarchists have directed the attacks of the mobs. The soldiers have been compelled to make frequent charges on the rioters and many arrests have been made. A crusier has been ordered to Bilbao to assist in putting down any uprising if rioting occurs there.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 25.—London was again a buyer, taking 25,000 shares in the first half hour, and materially helping a continuation of the upward movement. The chief feature was covering of shorts. Traders in many stocks fairly flew to get their stocks back as soon as this was communicated. It cannot be said, however, that the short interest was materially decreased, as a large and stubborn bear element put out large blocks of short stock on the advance and endeavored to check the upward movement. This feeling has now changed to buoyancy.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

President Judge J. K. Ewing, of Fayette county, was run do wn and killed at Uniontown, Pa., this morning by a Baltimore & Ohio railroad train.

W. Marshall's schooner Atlantic leads the Kaiser's yacht by about seventy miles in the ocean race, according to the latest report that was brought to New York port today.

Through the vigorous action of the military governor who has taken a hand in the riots which have occurred at Baracaldo, Spain, a more orderly state of affairs now exists there.

A dispatch from Weisbaden says that the condition of the Kaiserin who was injured in a fall down stairs, continues to improve. It has been announced that no more bulletins in regard to her condition will be issued.

The platform adopted by the Ohio republican convention today reaffirms the republican state and national platform of 1904; stands by the principles of protection to American labor and industries; indorses President Roosevelt's enforcement of the republican laws against monopolies, combinations and trusts, in restraint of trade laws, whose equality the U. S. Supreme Court has sustained; and also endorses every effort for the active enforcement of existing laws to stop all unjust discriminations and special favors in the form of railway rebates or by any other device.

Southern Industries.

Permanent organization of the Southern Industrial Parliament was effected in Washington yesterday. Gov. Robert B. Glenn, of North Carolina, was elected president; Dr. W. C. Murphy, of Washington, secretary, and the following vice-presidents were chosen: Alabama, William Richardson; Georgia, W. O. McGowan; Mississippi, Henrp Kernoghan; North Carolina, R. S. Reinhardt; South Corolina, E. J. Watson; Tennessee, Robert Gates; Texas, Joseph Shwratz; Virginia, C. L. Holland. W. O. McGowan, of Georgia, presided over the morning session.

The principal address was by Mr. Gustav H. Schwab, of New York, America nagent of one of the largest Atlantic steamship lines. Speaking against the protective tariff policy and in favor of reciprocal foreign trade, Mr. Schwab said:

"It has ever been an incontestable fact, although decried by some political leaders, that we cannot forever continue to trade among ourselves and that the fullest utilization of our resources demands an exchange of our commodities with those produced by other nations of the world.

"If the South desires fully to develop its resources, to build up its commerce and its industries, and to strive for the attainment of an assured future of prosperity, it must emphatically protest against any mediæval policy of trade prohibition; it must insist upon the letting down of the bars to permit an equitable and profitable exchange of products with the nations of the world, and it must bring all its influence and power to bear in favor of the conclusion of reciprocal trade agreements calculated to increase and enlarge the volume of commerce."

Gustav H. Schwab, of New York, importer and ship owner, addressed the parliament on the subject of "Foreign Commerce and Ocean Transportation." He declared for a lower tariff, likening the present law to the Chinese wall of trade.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me. Confederate Memorial Day.

An increased interest in Confederate Memorial Day was manifested yester day. More people were at the intersection of Prince and Washington streets than usual, and the services in connection with the celebration were interesting and impressive. The weather was ideal for such an occasion. In the throngs which crowed around the monument were many strangers, together with numbers of former Alexandrians now residing in other cities.

Early in the day Lee Camp hall was opened and a committee was on hand for the reception of donations of flowers. During the day other committees of the Camp visited the various cemeteries adjoining this city and placed floral emblems on the graves of all known Confederate soldiers.

About half past five o'clock the members of Lee Camp and the Alexandria Light Infantry formed in line on Prince street, near Lee Camp Hall, and, headed by Capt. Thomas Perry, the chief marshal, and a brass band, marched north on Alfred street to King street; west on King street to Henry street; countermarched on King street to Fairfax street; south on Fairfax street to Duke street; west on Duke street to Washington street, and thence to the Confederate Monument at the intersection of Prince and Washington streets, where the stand for the speakers had been erected.

On the broad veranda in front of Dr. Hugh McGuire's colonial residence the choir and band took position, and after appropriate selections by both, Mr. J. M. Johnson, Commander of Lee Camp, rapped the assemblage to order, when Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, Chaplain of Lee Camp, made an appropriate invocation.

Mr. John M. Johnson made a short address to the assemblage in which he fervently alluded to the memory of the Confederate dead, the principles for which they sacrificed their lives, &c. He then introduced Major Holmes Conrad, who was to be the principal orator of the occasion. The Major was received with an outburst of applause, and when it subsided he began his address by implying that what he said would be impromptu, as he had been taken by Mr. Johnson from the miasma of a criminal court where men were being tried for defrauding the government, and inducted into the pure atmosphere of old Alexandria with its sacred history and memories. In referring to scenes which he had left but a few hours previously in Washington, the Major said no ex-Confederates had been arraigned before the bar of justice for defrauding the government. Such had never lacked courage in the trying ordeals through which they passed, and they had never been found wanting in any position of trust. The speaker called attention to the fact that notwithstanding the gradual depletion of the ranks of the survivors of the lost cause, their enthusiasm kept at the high-water mark, and the assemblage before him was an evidence of that fact. "Ex-Confederates," said the Major, "are not as Jews at the wailing walls of Jerusalem, weeping over what the nation had been and lamenting over the decay of centuries. They have nothing to regret, as the principles for which they fought are now recognized, and sooner or later will be confirmed by a vote of the nation." Major Conrad then made a rapid resume of the issues which confronted the country at the close of the revolutionary war, together with those which subsequently arose and continued up to 1860, when Virginia, exercising the right accorded her when she entered the federal compact, deemed it to her interest to withdraw. The speaker mentioned a number of chapters in the country's history which showed that the South was sustained in the stand she took prior to the civil war, among them a decision of the United State Supreme Court to the effect that an army officer had the undoubted right to take his servant with him when ordered from port to port in the country. But the republican party had ignored the mandate of the higher court of the land, and there was but one way to assert southern rights, and that was a resort to arms. The South made no war against the constitution or the government of the United States, but realizing, as they did, that the ship of state had been captured by pirates, they had a proper incentive to go to war. The major traced the course of the republican party after the close of the war, alluded to the drumhead court martial which condemned a woman to death twenty-four hours after declaring her guilty and other high-handed acts of reconstruction days. The speaker appealed to his hearers to show him where under democratic rule (previous to 1860) the laws had been of such a nature as to enable certain men to amass from fifty to one hundred millions of dollars. There were, said he, no federations of labor up to the war of 1861-1865 for protection from amalgamations of capital. The major said Andrew Carnegie has written a book in which he says he has made his millions by virtue of laws enacted by the republican party. "But," said the major, "if President Roosevelt is the man I take him to be, he is in accord with the better element of this country, and a day of reckoning is coming when the entire nation will no longer be taxed for the benefit of Yankee factories. They are destined to go by the board." Major Conrad referred to the enormous expenditure for pensions and asked his hearers how long the G. A. R. would hold together if pensions to its members were cut off. "Would they," said the speaker, "assemble as you have done today to show their veneration for the cause for which they and their fellow-hirelings arrayed themselves against the South?" Major Conrad after paying a deserved tribute to the women of the South, said that during the years which have followed the close of the civil war there had been no change in southern associations or social life. No Yankee ideas had taken root in this section, except one which he deplored. "What would have been thought of R. M. T. Hunter or James M. Mason had they been seen going about the State begging people to vote for them as candidates for the United States Senate?" This was a degrading exotic from another section that should be eliminated. The major admonished his hearers to vote for no man who crawls at their feet and begs their support. Men who are guilty of such acts are unworthy the support of their fellows, as they have lost their self-respect and are not to be classed with the men whose memories were being celebrated. The major closed with some humorous allusions and took his seat amid great applause.

The choir sang another selection, while the members of the camp filed past the monument, each man as he did so depositing a small banquet at the foot of the pedestal. The procession then moved to Christ Church graveyard, where the mound containing the bodies of a number of Confederate soldiers was strewn with flowers. At this point the choir sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and the Light Infantry fired a volley the bugler sounded taps and the exercises closed.

An interesting incident in connection with yesterday's commemorative services occurred on King street between Henry and Fayette. Sergeant William J. Summers, who served faithfully during the war in Kemper's battery, lives on the south side of that square. He has been house-bound for a long time, and while unable to be present in body he is in spirit when anything in connection with the memory of the late Southern Confederacy is in progress. When the procession arrived in front of his residence Capt. Thomas Perry, marshal, commanded a halt, when each member of Lee Camp as well as others in line entered and shook hands with the old veteran.

Lee Camp was in charge of Mr. S. C. Boush yesterday, and he as well as all others who had charge of the memorial exercises performed well their parts.

Conference Lines.

Committees from the Virginia, Wilmington and Baltimore conferences of the M. E. Church met yesterday in Washington at the residence of Rev. Dr. Naylor, the presiding elder of the Washington District of the Baltimore Conference, and discussed the matter of the division of the Virginia Conference. It was finally decided to divide this conference between the Wilmington and Baltimore conferences. The churches in the Norfolk section of the State will be given to the Wilmington Conference and the remainder of them to the Baltimore Conference. The churches in Alexandria and this section of Virginia will be attached to the Washington district of the Baltimore Conference and those in Frederick and Clarke counties and the adjoining country to the Frederick, Md., district of the Baltimore Conference. The action of the committees will be submitted to the Board of Bishops of the M. E. Church for ratification.

Crape on the Door.

The remains, of Ella Griffith, alias Violet Burroughs, who committed suicide by shooting herself in a north Lee street resort at an early hour yesterday morning, have been taken from Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment, and are now in the house in which the deed of self-destruction was committed, and instead of revelry within a temporary lodge of sorrow is in session, while crape attached to the door knob is swayed to and fro by the wind. Eva Baker, proprietress of the house, has announced her purpose to bear all expense of a proper sepulture in Bethel Cemetery and the funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon, when Rev. Mr. Stump will conduct the services.

A difficulty occurred between James Bell and Harrie Jackson, both colored, at a cake walk on north Fairfax street last night, during which the latter was cut by the former. Officers Mayhugh, Bell and Henderson invaded the place and arrested Bell, and this morning he was fined $5 in the Police Court. They also arrested John Smoot, colored, for carrying concealed weapons. He was fined $20.

Senator Martin at Roanoke.

Senator Martin spoke at Roanoke last night. He was introduced by acting Judge John Woods as "The Senator who believes that the office is intended for the service of the people, and he is a servant of the people." The Senator laid particular stress on the statement made by Governor Montague that he had voted against the Call resolution. He stated that it was a misstatement, and the attention of the Governor had been called to it. He had seen newspaper reports in which the Governor had stated that he obtained his information from a bureau of information in Washington, and if he was in error he would correct it. Parties who had heard the statement at Bedford told him that the governor's explanation was very evasive. It was, said the Senator, as positively untrue as any statement could be. He also devoted much of his speech to showing what he had done for the workingmen. His sympathies were always with the man who worked. It had been charged that he opposed the employers' liability bill. It was wholly untrue; it was regrettable that falsehoods traveled faster than truth.

He read an extract from the Railroad Trainmen's Journal, published at Cleveland, which eulogized him for the part he had taken in securing an amendment to the rate commission bill and a letter from Samuel Gompers also showed how he had obtained equality for the navy yard and other workers with the clerks in the government service at Washington, had secured the passage of a bill which gave to workers during the Spanish war $600,000 for overtime work, and read extracts from a letter from a Richmond paper box manufacturer, who stated that through his efforts an amendment had been made to a bill which threatened to destroy the paper box industry and throw thousands of girls out of employment.

Ghost Story.

West Orange, N. J., has a ghost scare. The wraith is making its headquarters at 110 Ashland avenue, and is completely equipped and self-contained, It pulls off bed clothing and the occupants out of bed. It plays ragtime on the piano and rattles the dishes in the pantry. All the children in the neighborhood are wearing heavy wool stockings, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ferrel, the occupants of the house, have moved out.

Twice within a week have the police been summoned to eject the ghost. Early Sunday morning an urgent summons for help came from the Ferrel residence, and Policeman McDonald was sent to the scene. The trouble this time seemed to have centered in the room of Mr. and Mrs. William Kane, a young married couple. They complained to McDonald that their room had been invaded by the ghost, who had jerked the covers off the bed.

McDonald started to look for the banshee. He is convinced he found it in the front room, for he stepped on something soft, which emitted an unearthly yell. McDonald says it was the ghost. He hurried back to the police station, forgetting his helmet.

The Kanes have moved to a neighboring house.

Stir up Religious Hatred.

The Moscow Gazette, the leading reactionary organ in Russia, has begun a bitter war against religious toleration, arguing that it will wipe out orthodoxy in the non-orthodox sections of the country. The paper declares that 450,000 Russians in Poland will come under the influence of Roman Catholicism if the Catholics are permitted to proselyte. "The ukase has already had a deplorable effect on the Russian mujiks," says the Gazette, "among whom stories are current that the Emperor is under the influence of the Pope. It is even said that the Emperor will become a Catholic, and that the mujiks who do not desire to be converted to Catholicism will be transported and compelled to live in three provinces." The paper concludes: "This is not a religious war, but a Russo-Polish national battle."

The Novoe Vremya yesterday morning attacked what it terms the "insatiable demands of the Jews," who, the paper declares, "are exploiting Russia for the benefit of their pockets, but do not show a particle of patriotism, being the real instigators of the revolutionary movement."

"I Thank The Lord!"

cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; 25c.

How to Ward Off Old Age.

The most successful way of warding off the approach of old age is to maintain a vigorous digestion. This can be done by eating only food suited to your age and occupation, and when any disorder of the stomach appears take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct it. If you have a weak stomach or are troubled with indigestion, you will find these Tablets to be just what you need. For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following recently appeared in the Aitcheson (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well-known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.
